

AIMS AND PRINCIPLE OF EDUCATION

Presented by:-

Bhagawati Ray

Aims of education

An aim of education is concerned with providing the much needed direction for the educative process. Following are the aims:-

- Utilitarian
- Vocational
- Social
- Intellectual
- Physical health and well being
- Character development
- Moral development

-
-
- Cultural development
  - Mental and emotional development
  - Autonomous development
  - Education for leisure
  - Self realization

-
- Utilitarian:- It is concerned with providing knowledge and skill required by the child for leading his day to day life.
  - Vocational:- It prepares the child to earn in his life to lead a productive life in a society.
  - Social:- It gives assistance to child to become a member of society.
  - Intellectual:- It is essential for acquiring knowledge, thinking, reasoning, judgement and generalisation.

-
-
- Citizenship:- It motivates a child to perform his duties in society.
  - Physical health and well being:- It prepares the child to lead a healthy life by providing knowledge and creating positive attitude towards health.
  - Character:- It assists the child to develop certain human values, attitude and habits required for building desirable character.
  - Moral:- It helps to develop moral values such as honesty, truthfulness, justice, courage, purity etc.

-
- Cultural:- Education helps child to become more cultured and civilized.
  - Mental and emotional:- Education trains child to gain adequate mental and emotional maturity.
  - Autonomous:- it helps child to act and develop the skill of independence or autonomy.
  - Self realization:- Education helps to identify child's own potentials and bring it out to maximum possible extent.

-
- Education for leisure:- It prepares child to use their leisure time for doing something useful.

# PRINCIPLES OF EDUCATION:-

- To complete the socialization process
- To transmit the cultural heritage
- Formation of social personality
- Reformation of attitude
- For occupational placement
- Confirms individual status in society

-
- Encourages the spirit of competition
  - Fosters participant's democracy
  - Education imparts values
  - Acts as an integrative force
  - Provides values and orientation which are specific to certain professions
-

THANK YOU !!!